

What Will You Do?

Ophelia Guyon Burroughs, 1890

Adam Geibel

$\text{♩} = 102$

1. What will you do with the King called Je - sus? Ma - ny are wait - ing to
2. What will you do for the King called Je - sus, He who for you left His
3. What will you do with the King called Je - sus? Who will sub - mit to His hear you say— Some have des - pised Him, re - ject - ing His mer - cy; throne a - bove; Here 'mid the low - ly and sin - ful to la - bor, gen - tle sway? Where are the hearts rea - dy now to en - throne Him?

What will you do with your king to - day? What can you wit - ness con -
Dai - ly un - fold - ing His Fa - ther's love. Look on the fields white al -
Who will His kind co - m - mands o - bey? Come with your oint - ments most

- cern - ing His good - ness, Who died to save you from sin's bit - ter thrall?
- rea - dy to har - vest, Who now is will - ing to toil with the few?
cost - ly and pre - cious, Pour out your gifts at the dear Sav - ior's feet;

Who will de - clare Him the fair - est of thou - sands? Who now will crown Him the What will you do for the dear Sav - ior Je - sus? Lo, He is wait - ing, He Ren - der to Him all your loy - al de - vo - tion; Seek to ex - alt Him by

Refrain Voices in Unison

Lord of all?
 calls for you! What will you do with the King called Je - sus? What, oh, what will you prais-es meet.

Voices in Parts

do with Je - sus? He waits to bless all who hum - bly con - fess Faith in His blood and right - eous - ness.