

The All-in-All

James Gilchrist Lawson, 1911

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

1. He is com - ing a - gain with great glo - ry and power, To reign on this
2. When His right - eous - ness co - vers this earth as a sea, No sor - row or
3. All of sin and of sick - ness shall van - ish a - way, The heav'ns shall be
4. Nei - ther weep - ing nor death then will mar the fair scene; No more shall the 5. Then "fare - well to all sin" let us joy - ful - ly say, Fare - well to its earth as the King o - ver all; And the na - tions shall bend 'neath the sway of His care then shall bur - den the soul; At His pre - sence the hills shall re - joice and be seen com - ing down as the dew, At the pre - sence of Him, the Al - might - y and ter - rors of Sa - tan ap - pall; Our re - joic - ing in Je - sus will then be com - plea - sures, fare - well to its mirth; All its fol - lies and joys then as no - thing shall rod, And the de - sert re - joice as the pre - sence of God.

Refrain

glad, And not one in the bounds of His realm shall be sad.
King, All the co - horts of earth shall break forth and shall sing. And the pow - ers of
- plete, For His en - e - mies shall all be un - der His feet.
be, When the Lord in His glo - ry and beau - ty we see.

dark - ness shall crum - ble and fall; In the glor - i - ous light of the ALL-IN-ALL; In the glor - i - ous light, in the glor - i - ous light, In the glor - i - ous light of the ALL-IN-ALL.