

The Wheat and the Tares

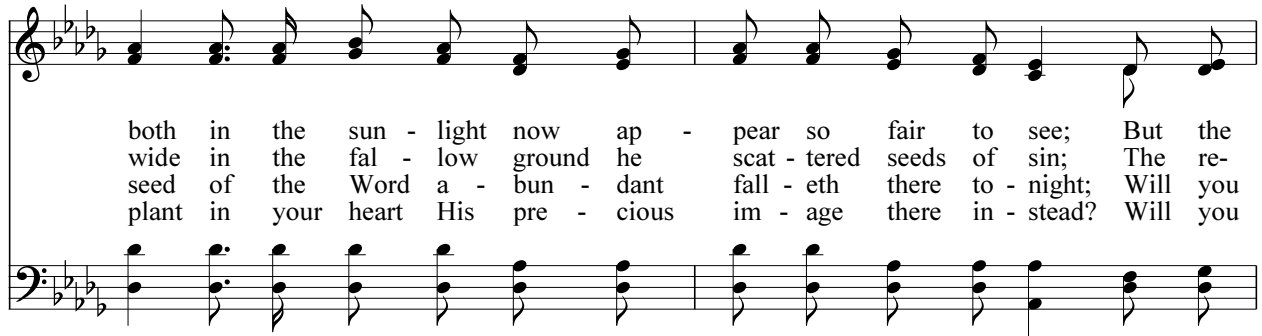

Mattie M. Boteler, 1905

John R. Bryant

♩=88

1. In the field by the way-side grow the wheat and tares to - ge - ther, And they
2. Sa - tan came while the keep-er was a - sleep and sown with mal-ice Far and
3. In the field of your heart is plen - ty fal - low ground, my bro - ther, And the 4. Will you let Him up - root the thorns and bri - ars that en - cum-ber? Let Him both in the sun - light now ap - pear so fair to see; But the wide in the fal - low ground he scat - tered seeds of sin; The re-seed of the Word a - bun - dant fall - eth there to - night; Will you plant in your heart His pre - cious im - age there in - stead? Will you har - vest is com - ing when to - ge - ther they'll be ga - thered, And the

- morse now of con - science may - be fills your rest - less spir - it, And the cher - ish and nour - ish it and give it place of wel - come? Will you find o'er the thou - sand fold it pays you with - out num - ber When the

Refrain

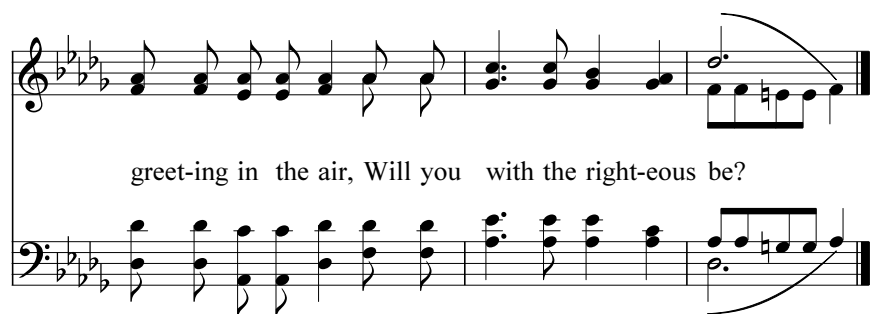

sep - a - ra - tion day then shall be.
dread - ed days of har - vest be - gin. What then shall be your har-vest, When the take your stand for God and for right? sheaves of time have been har - vest - ed.

dread - ful day you see? Will you with the wick - ed stand, Or ap- pear at His right hand? When the saints are meet - ing there, What a greet-ing in the air, Will you with the right-eous be?