

On My Way to Zion

D. E. Goodhart, 1876

George William Baumeister, 1881

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. I am on my way to Zi - on, To the ci - ty of my God; I am
2. When I pass the gloom - y val - ley, Je - sus will be there to guide; He will
3. When I reach that land im - mor - tal, When I join that ho - ly throng, With the tread - ing the same path - way That be - fore the saints have trod; Tho' the road is rough and lead me thro' the dark - ness; He'll be - ev - er at my side; He'll be with me at the saints and ho - ly an - gels, We will sing our glad new song; We will sing the praise of thorn - y, And temp - ta - tions oft - en come, Yet I know that ev - ery even - ing, I am riv - er, When I cross its dark - est foam, And in sweet - est ac - cents whis - per, "Cheer up, Je - sus 'Neath the spires of Heav'n's high dome. There, with an - thems loud - ly ring - ing, Praise Him

Duet

Refrain
one day near - er home.
soul, you're near - er home." Near - er home, near - er home, I am one day near - er in our heav'n - ly home. near - er home, near - er home

rit.
home; Yes, I know, at ev - ery even - ing, I am one day near - er home.
near - er home,