1. I am think-ing of friends whom I used to know, Who lived and suf - fered in
2. There were some whose hearts were bur - dened with cares, They passed their mo - ments in
3. There were some whose bodies were full of dis - ease, Medi - cine nor doc - tor could
4. They were some who were poor and often des - pised; They looked to Heav-en thro' this world be - low; They've gone up to Heav-en: but I want to know What are they sigh-ing and tears, They clung to the cross with trem-bling and fears, But what are they give them much ease; They suf - fered till death brought a fin - al re - lease, But what are they tear-blind - ed eyes. While peo - ple were heed - less and deaf to their cries; But what are they
