

Trusting Thee

Mary E. Chamberlain Wyeth, 1877

James Ramsey Murray

♩=90

1. I am trust-ing, Lord, in Thee; Though the night is cold and dark, And the
2. Long the jour-ney, rough the main, Still the har - bor far a - way— And I
3. Though Thy pur - pos - es seem dark, Thou art faith - ful to per - form. And Thou
4. So, o - bey - ing Thy com - mand, I am trust - ing, Lord, in Thee. I am rag - ing, storm-y sea Threat - ens to en - gulf my bark.

Refrain
toil in numb-ing pain, Through the bil-lows' ic - y spray. I am trust-ing, Lord in bid'st me to em - bark, And cross o - ver in the storm.
wear - y, far from land, But sal - va-tion I shall see.

Thee, I am trust-ing, Lord in Thee, Trust-ing Thee, trust-ing Thee, I am trust-ing all to Thee.