

Ring-ing, Sweetly Ring-ing

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1868

Theodore Edson Perkins

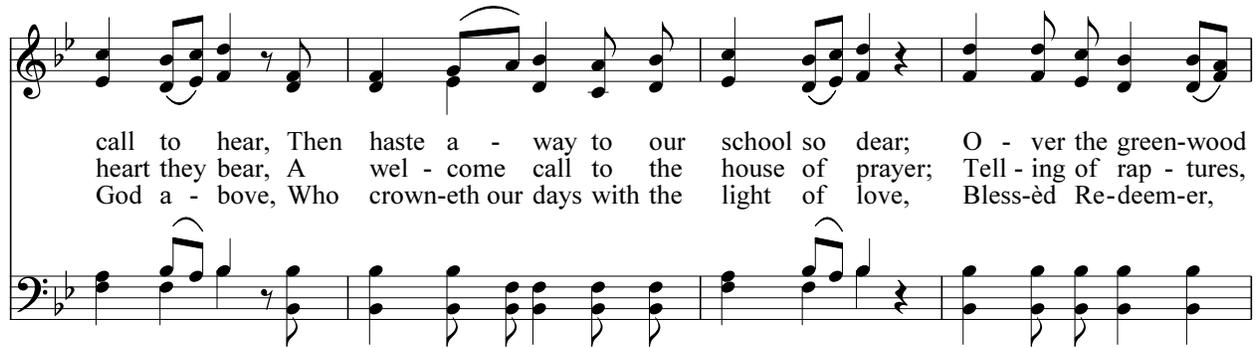

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. Ring - ing, sweet - ly ring - ing, The cheer - ful Sab - bath bells;
2. Ring - ing, sweet - ly ring - ing, Their sil - ver chimes we love;
3. Ring - ing, sweet - ly ring - ing, Those cheer - ful Sab - bath bells;

Ring-ing, sweet-ly ring-ing, The cheer-ful Sab - bath bells. We lin-ger a mo - ment their Ring-ing, sweet-ly ring-ing, Their sil - ver chimes we love. A mis-sion of peace to the Ring-ing, sweet-ly ring-ing, Those cheer-ful Sab - bath bells. O! let us be grate-ful to call to hear, Then haste a - way to our school so dear; O - ver the green-wood heart they bear, A wel - come call to the house of prayer; Tell - ing of rap - tures, God a - bove, Who crown-eth our days with the light of love, Bless-èd Re-deem-er, joy - ous and free, Sing - ing with glad - ness, hap - py are we.

Refrain

tell - ing of rest, Man - sions of glo - ry, tran - quil and blest. While ev - er to Thee, Praise from Thy child - ren of - fered shall be.

o-ver the dist-ant hill Their mu-sic is float-ing still, Hear the e - cho, e - cho, e - cho;

Sweet Sab-bath bells, Hear the e - cho, e - cho, e - cho, Sweet Sab-bath bells.