1. If you in Heav'n would stay, through - out e - ter - nal day,
2. O! sin - ner, come just now, and un - to Je - sus bow,
3. And when my days are done, and I my race have run,

Self and sin must be de - nied; To Je - sus we must plead, He'll Give up all your sin and pride; For Je - sus is the way, just I must cross the chill - y tide. But Je - sus will be there, I

Refrain
make us free in - deed, And place us on the heav'n-ly side. I'll trust Him look to Him and say, "Lord place me on the heav'n-ly side." trust Him, trust Him, have no need to fear, He'll land me on the heav'n-ly side.

what-so-e'er be-tide, I'll trust Him, He has ne'er de-nied; To Je - sus I will plead, He'll trust Him, trust Him, meet my ev - ery need, And keep me on the heav'n-ly side.
