

There Is None Righteous

James McGranahan, 1887

James McGranahan

♩=104

1. A guilt-y soul, by Phar-i-sees of old, Was brought ac-cused, a-lone, But
2. A learn-ed mas-ter, rul-er of the Jews, God's king-dom could not gain, With
3. "Good Mas-ter," pray can aught be lack-ing yet? Thy laws I do o-bey; "Go,

Refrain

Je-sus said, "Let him with-out a sin Be first to cast a stone."
all the lore and cul-ture of the age, He "must be born a-gain." "There sell and give, then come and fol-low Me," But sad he turned a-way.

is none right-eous, no not one, All, all have sinned." There is none right-eous, For all have sinned, And come short of the glo-ry, The glo-ry of God, Come short of the glo-ry, Come short of the glo-ry, Of the glo-ry of God.

