

Who Shall Be Able to Stand?

Thoro Harris, 1908

Thoro Harris

♩=98

1. In that aw - ful hour when all the tribes of men Shall be - fore the throne of jus - tice
 2. When the moun - tains and the hills shall dis - ap - pear, And the is - lands of the sea de -
 3. When the loud des - pair - ing cry of myr - iads lost Shall as - cend from earth's un - num - bered
 4. Shall we sti - fle now the Spir - it's kind - ly voice And in tres - pass - es and sins lie

- stand, When the deep shall yield her hid - den trea - sure, And the dead a - rise from sea and
 - part, When the thun - ders of God's wrath a - wak - en Bit - ter mem - ories in each care - less host Who have passed the bounds of God's for - bear - ance And have sinned a - gainst the Ho - ly dead, While the door of mer - cy still stands o - pen, Ere the hope of par - doning grace is land—heart— Who shall be a - ble to stand When the King shall name His own? When the Ghost— be a - ble to stand all His own fled?

Refrain

day of hope is flown, And we reap what we have sown, Who shall be a - ble to stand?
 in that great day