

More Than a Friend to Me

Lizzie DeArmond & Charles Gabriel, 1908

Mirian Christensen

♩=115

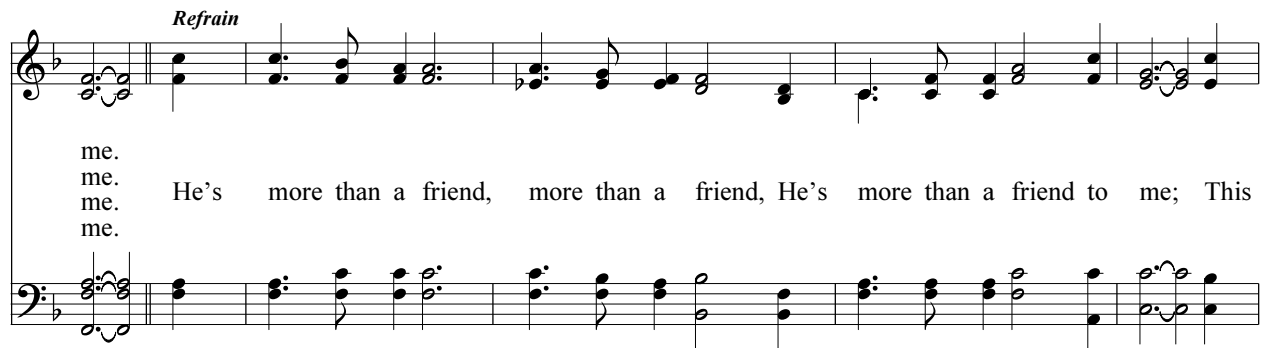

1. The Sav - ior of sin - ners from glo - ry came down, My hope of sal - va - tion to
2. When bro - ken with sor - row, and trem - bling with fear, To Him with my bur - den I
3. In mo - ments of weak - ness up - on Him I lean, His prom - ise my hope and my
4. Some - time in His beau - ty, thro' won - der - ful grace, This King of all kings I shall be; Was scourged for my guilt, and was mocked with a crown— He's more than a friend to flee; No mat - ter what trou - bles or tri - als ap - pear— He's more than a friend to plea; So gent - ly He leads, tho' His hand is un - seen— He's more than a friend to see; And oh, 'twill be hea - ven to look on His face— He's more than a friend to me.

Refrain

me.
me. He's more than a friend, more than a friend, He's more than a friend to me; This
me.

Sav - ior of sin - ners, this King of all kings, Is more than a friend to me.