

If Your Soul Is Lost

Haldor Lillenas, 1917

Haldor Lillenas

♩=102

1. If the world and all of its wealth you gain, If its stores of treasures you
2. At your feet the world may no riches lay, Will it matter much on the
3. If the world should honor and fame bestow, If uncounted millions your
4. In the race of sin you are running fast, And the pleasures gained but a should obtain, Would they not be useless and all in vain, If your soul is judgment day, If you own a palace or hut of clay, If your soul is name should know, How much would it help you down here below, If your soul is moment last; How much will it profit when life is past, If your soul is lost? Would they not be useless and all in vain, If your soul is lost?

lost? Will it matter much on the judgment day, If your soul is lost?
lost? How much would it help you down here below, If your soul is lost?
lost? How much will it profit when life is past, If your soul is lost?