

The Needy Ones of Earth

Edith J. Sanford Tillotson, 1911

Karl K. Lorenz

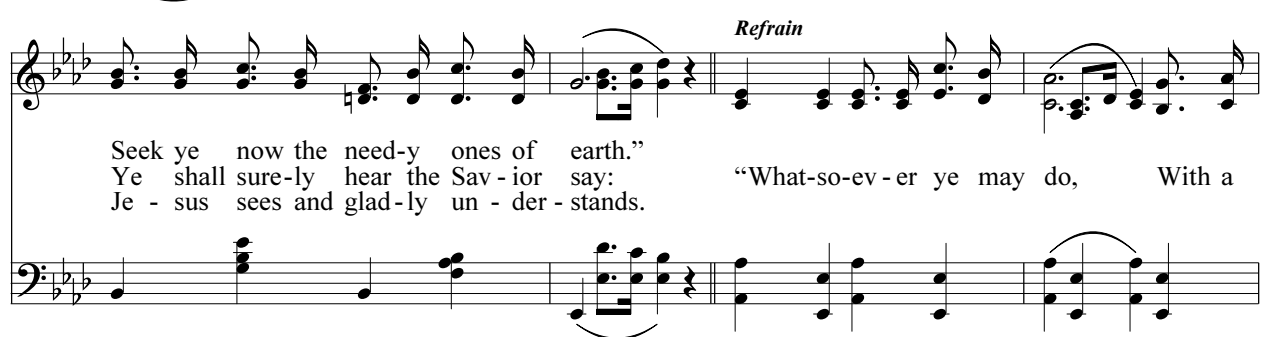

$\text{♩} = 97$

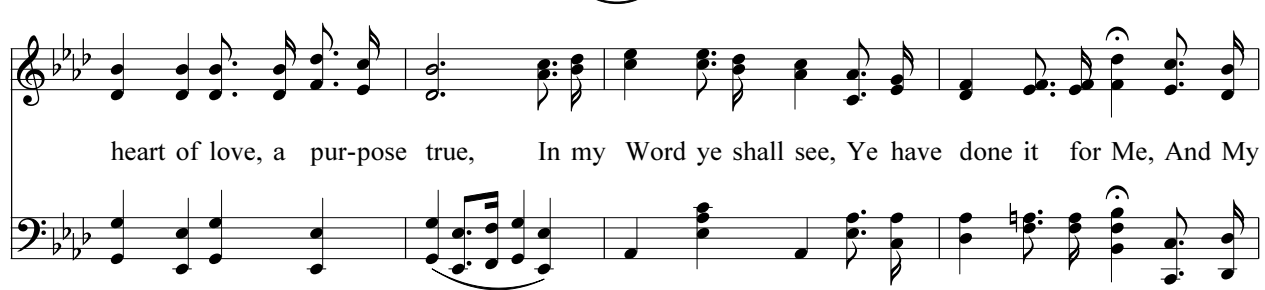

1. List-en to the voice of the Sav - ior dear, He speaks a word of match-less
2. Tar - ry not and turn not in scorn and pride, But fol - low in His steps to-
3. Jour-ney on your way with a watch-ful eye, Jour - ney with an out-stretch-ed worth; "Seek the need-y, poor and sad, Give them aid and make them glad;

- day; Seek them out, the weak, the poor, Give them com-fort, swift and sure, hand; Seek the need-y, dry their tears, Heal their sor - rows, calm their fears,

Refrain
Seek ye now the need-y ones of earth."
Ye shall sure-ly hear the Sav - ior say: "What-so-ev - er ye may do, With a Je - sus sees and glad-ly un - der - stands.

heart of love, a pur-pose true, In my Word ye shall see, Ye have done it for Me, And My bles-sing I give un-to you."