God Is Our Refuge and Our Strength

Psalm 46
The Psalter, 1912

(E) (A) (D) (A) (D) (Bm) (A) (E) (A)

Capo 1:

(E) (A) (D) (A) (E) (F#m) (E) (B7) (E)

And therefore though the earth remove, we will not be afraid;
And the holy place where in the Lord Most High has his abode.
The troubled earth was still to peace before his mighty word.
Come, see what destruction great he on the earth has brought.
The subject nations of the earth my name shall magnify.

(E7) (A) (E7) (A7) (D) (A) (Bm) (B7) (E)

Though hills amidst the midst of her, un
Since God is in the midst of her, un
The Lord of Hosts is on our side, our
To the utmost ends of all the earth he
The Lord of Hosts is on our side, our

(E7) (A) (D) (A) (D) (Bm) (A) (E7) (A)

Yea, though the mighty billows shake, the mountains on the shore.
For God will be her early help, when trouble is at hand.
The God of Jacob is for us a refuge strong and sure.
The weapons of the strong destroyed, he makes a bid for peace.
The God of Jacob is for us a refuge strong and sure.
