

Following the Star

Elsie Duncan Yale, 1911

Carl Harold Lowden

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. Star in beau-ty beam-ing, On the sha-dowed plain, O'er the val-leys gleam-ing,
2. Star of light su-per-nal, Lead a-long the way, For the King e-ter-nal
3. Star of fade-less glo-ry, By thy won-drous rays Earth shall know the sto-ry,

Pour thy gold-en rain. Shine in roy-al splen-dor, Pil-grims hi-ther bring.
Comes to earth to-day. Des-erts may be drear-y, Yet we joy-ful sing;
Her Re-deem-er praise. Thro' the dark and dan-ger, Faith our feet shall wing,

Refrain
Shed thy ra-diance ten-der, On the new-born King.
Can our feet be wea-ry, Hast-ening to our king? Fol-low-ing the star,
Till we reach the man-ger, Till we see our king.

Fol-low-ing the star, Joy-ful-ly we jour-ney, Pil-grims from a-far. Led by light ce-

-les-tial, 'Neath the star-ry skies, March a-long with joy-ful song, To where Mes-si-ah lies.