

Oh, My Lord Jesus

Christian Gregor, & Richard W. Adams 2017

Friedrich Ferdinand Flemming, 1811

♩=113

1. Oh, my Lord Je - sus, if I did not have You, Or if Your
2. Where would my tears and sor - row find re - li - ef? What o - ther
3. Had You not loved me first, be - fore cre - a - tion, My stub - born
4. Now, from the bot - tom of my soul I thank You, For the e-blood did not for sin - ners speak, Where would my soul, heart like Yours so full of love? You are my confidence,

- ter - nal not have sought Your grace; You searched me out, and plan to give me rest, Fel - low - ship, life for-least, and last, and lost, Peace and for - give - ness seek?

You and You a - lone, None o - ther reigns a - bove.
in Your mer - cy took me In - to Your fond em - brace.
- ev - er through the cross; Your child is tr - uly blessed.