

There'll Be No Dark River There

E. C. Macartney, 1897

Henry Lake Gilmour

♩=108

1. When we have come to Jor - dan's tide, There'll be no dark ri - ver there; With
2. With an - gels bend - ing from a - bove, There'll be no dark ri - ver there; In
3. And when we've crossed the mys - tic tide, There'll be no dark ri - ver there; When
4. Let this blest thought fresh cour - age give, There'll be no dark ri - ver there; In Je - sus stand - ing close be - side, There'll be no dark ri - ver there. His bound - less grace shall fel - low - ship with Him we love, There'll be no dark ri - ver there. His word di - vine shall we have reached the oth - er side, There'll be no dark ri - ver there. And hand in hand we'll that bright home of peace and love, There'll be no dark ri - ver there. The gate a - jar, we light the place With beams of glo - ry fair, And in the sun - shine bright - ly shine, His end - less life we'll share; When all to Jse - sus walk the strand With loved ones bright and fair, For in that hap - py see a - far, Be - yond this world of care; Tho' Jor - dan's stream may

Refrain

from His face, There'll be no dark ri - ver there. we re - sign, There'll be no dark ri - ver there. There'll be no dark ri - ver there, There'll be heav'n - ly land, There'll be no dark ri - ver there. us di - vide, There'll be no dark ri - ver there.

no dark ri - ver there; Up - on His breast we'll sweet - ly rest, There'll be no dark ri - ver there.