

This Is the Winter Morn

Osgood Eaton Fuller, 1885

Arranged by L. H. Thomas

♩=100

1. This is the win - ter morn, Our Sav - ior, Christ, was born, Who
 2. Ring, ring, O hap - py bells! A bless - ed an - gel tells The
 3. The shep - herds vi - gil keep And watch by night their sheep; Up - 4. All in the low - ly place They find the roy - al grace, And 5. Their grate - ful hearts are full Of things most beau - ti - ful; And left the realms of end - less day, To take our sins a - way. Have sto - ry of His hum - ble birth, Who came this day to earth. Have

 - on the plains of Beth - le - hem What glo - ry comes to them! Have lo! they fall a - wor - ship - ping Be - fore the new - born King. Have lo! the won - der of the Lord They straight - way spread a - broad. Have ye no car - ol for the Lord, To spread His love, His love a - ye no car - ol for the Lord, To spread His love, His love a - ye from Heav'n no glo - ry felt, Who all, who all in prayer have ye no wor - ship for the Lord, To give, to give with one ac - ye no beau - ty of the Christ Whose love, whose love has long suf -

- broad? Have ye no car - ol for the Lord, To
 - broad? Have ye no car - ol for the Lord, To knelt? Have ye from Heav'n no glo - ry felt, Who
 - cord? Have ye no wor - ship for the Lord, To
 - ficed? Have ye no beau - ty of the Christ Whose ♩=110

Refrain

spread His love, His love a - broad? Ho - san-na! from all our hearts we raise, Ho-spread His love, His love a - broad? Ho - san-na! from all our hearts we pour, Ho-all, who all in prayer have knelt? Ho - san-na! in all our hearts is light, Ho-give, to give with one ac - cord? Ho - san-na! in all our hearts we bring, Ho-love, whose love has long suf - ficed? Ho - san-na! from all our hearts we raise, Ho-

- san-na! Ho - san-na! And make our lives His praise.
 - san-na! Ho - san-na! And bless Him ev - er - more.
 - san-na! Ho - san-na! God's wor - ship is de - light.
 - san-na! Ho - san-na! Our lives our of - fer - ing.
 - san-na! Ho - san-na! And car - ry hence His praise.