

They Shall Be Comforted

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1900

William James Kirkpatrick

♩=130

1. They shall be com-fort-ed, sor-row-ing heart; Soon ev-ery cloud will for-
2. They shall be com-fort-ed, Je-sus says so; True and e-ter-nal His
3. They shall be com-fort-ed, yea, ev-en here; Bless-ed the mourn-er whom
4. They shall be com-fort-ed, rise, then, and shine; Shine in the beau-ty of

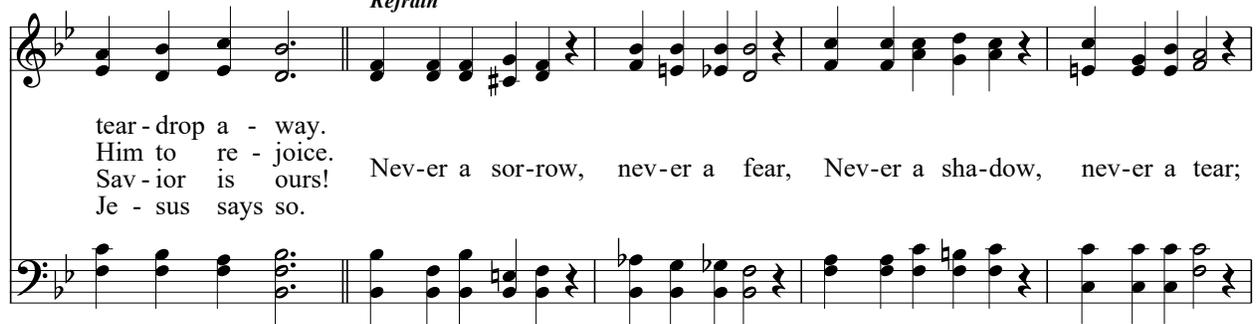

- ev-er de-part; Joy, won-drous joy, in that beau-ti-ful day, prom-ise, we know; Gen-tle His smile, and how ten-der His voice, Je-sus shall cheer; Sun-beams of glo-ry thro' times fleet-ing showers, love so di-vine; Let oth-ers find where the "still wa-ters" flow,

When God shall wipe ev-ery tear-drop a-way, When God shall wipe ev-ery Bid-ding His child-ren in Him to re-joice, Bid-ding His child-ren in Hea-ven a-round us—this Sav-ior is ours! Hea-ven a-round us—this
They may be com-fort-ed, Je-sus says so; They may be com-fort-ed,

Refrain

tear-drop a-way.
Him to re-joice. Nev-er a sor-row, nev-er a fear, Nev-er a sha-dow, nev-er a tear;
Sav-ior is ours! Je-sus says so.

They shall be com-fort-ed in that sweet day, When God shall wipe ev-ery tear-drop a-way.