

The Blood upon the Door

Johnson Oatman, Jr., 1896

George Crawford Hugg

♩=93

1. When the Lord passed o - ver E - gypt, There was weep - ing ev - ery - where,
2. We are in a land of dan - ger, And death lurks on ev - ery hand;
3. Not the blood of lambs of cat - tle, Sprin - kled o - ver an - y part,

For the an - gel smote the first-born Of each fam - ily dwell - ing there; But some hous - es
But that soul has per - fect safe - ty Who o - beys the Lord's com - mand; For se - cure in But the blood of Christ the Sav - ior, Can re - deem a hu - man heart, Then when death those he passed o - ver, As His word had said be - fore, And death en - tered God's pa - vil - ion, He can watch life's break - ers roar, For God's an - gels ties shall se - ver, And we walk on earth no more We may live with

Refrain
not the por - tals Where the blood was on the door.
guard that dwell - ing Where the blood is on the door. Pre - cious blood up - on the door, Christ for - ev - er If His blood is on the door.

Sav - ing blood up - on the door; O, my soul, there is no dan - ger, When the blood is on the door.