

Not Tonight

Peter Philip Bilhorn, 1892

Peter Philip Bilhorn

♩ = 90

1. "Not to - night," so ma - ny say, And turn from light and life a -
2. "Not to - night," a man re - plied, And turned with care - less laugh a -
3. "Not to - night!" O trem - bling heart, Why long - er bid thy Lord de -
4. "Not to - night," O sad re - ply, When Christ to save you wait - eth
5. "Not to - night," count well the cost, Should you for - ev - er - more be

- way, A - las! for some 'twill be too late; An - o - ther night may seal their fate.
- side, But death called loud that ve - ry night; His soul in ter - ror took its flight.
- part? Why will you choose that bit - ter lot To hear Him say, "I know you not!"
nigh. The day of grace may soon be past, Your cry will be lost, lost at last!
lost? If Heav'n and bliss you ne - ver see, Where will you spend e - ter - ni - ty?

Refrain
Come to - night, O come to - night, Je - sus lov - ing - ly doth wait; Come to - O come to - night, O come to - night, Je - sus lov - ing - ly doth wait;

- night, O come to - night
O come to - night, O come to - night, Some o - ther night may be too late.