

Remember How Much I Love You

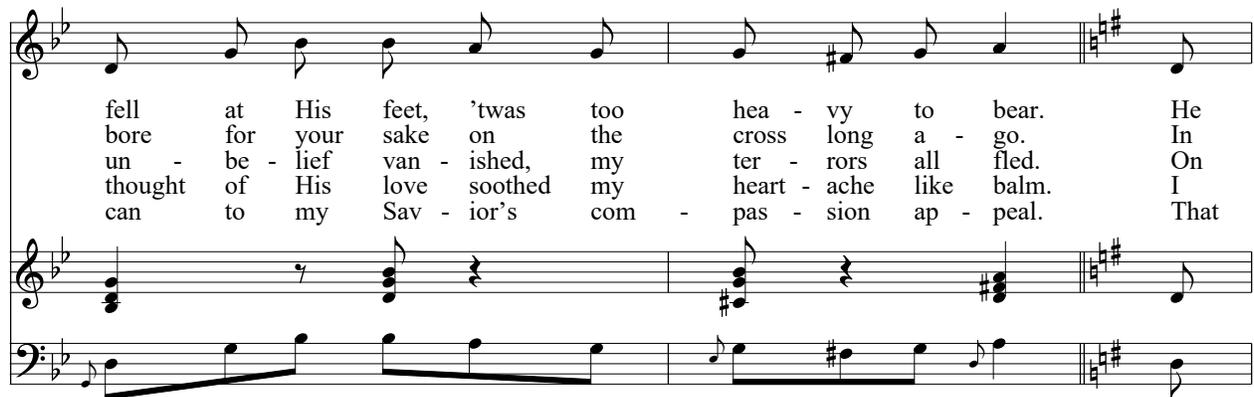

Ada Ruth Habershon, 1910

Mary L. Stocks

♩ = 85

1. I came to my Lord with my bur - den of care, And
2. "You sure - ly for - get all the bur - den of woe I
3. The mo - ment I heard the sweet words which He said, My
4. The words of my Lord turned the storm in - to calm, The
5. And so when the sor - rows of oth - ers I feel, I fell at His feet, 'twas too hea - vy to bear. He bore for your sake on the cross long a - go. In un - be - lief van - ished, my ter - rors all fled. On thought of His love soothed my heart - ache like balm. I can to my Sav - ior's com - pas - sion ap - peal. That whis - pered to me as I cried to Him there, "Re - mem - ber how much I love you."

fu - ture, when - ev - er the bit - ter tears flow, Re - mem - ber how much I love you."
this blest as - sur - ance I pil - low my head, "Re - mem - ber how much I love you."
know that the fu - ture can bring me no harm, "Re - mem - ber how much I love you."
He may to them this great sec - ret re - veal, "Re - mem - ber how much I love you."

Refrain

The way may be rough, but this is e - nough, Re - mem - ber how much I love you.