

Cling to the Bible

Thomas C. Neal, 1871

William Howard Doane

♩ = 100

1. There's a book which sur - pass - es the sag - es, A vol - ume of wis - dom di -
2. 'Tis the light which will guide us to glo - ry, The sword of the Spir - it of
3. It re - veals where the foun - tain is flow - ing, Which wash - es the soul from its

- vine, And the glo - ry that gleams from its pag - es, No splen - dor of earth can out - might; And to dwell on its beau - ti - ful sto - ry, Is of Hea - ven the sweet - est de - stain; Age and sor - row are com - fort - ed know - ing, With earth they shall part with their

Refrain ³
- shine.
- light. We'll cling to the Bi - ble, Light of ev - ery land; When foes shall as - sault, We'll pain.

ne - ver, ne - ver fail To de - fend it, heart and hand; By the Bi - ble we will stand, Like a true and val - iant ar - my, At the Lord's com - mand.