Weighed in the Balance

Barney Elliott Warren, 1907

1. Weighed in the balance of justice true, Sinful the path thou hast trod;
   Weighed and found wanting—will it be you? Weighed by the word of fall;
   “Weighed and found wanting” will it be you? Weighed by the word of cure. Weighed and found wanting, - Re ject - ed at Hea ven’s- door.

2. There it will hurt like a wounding dart When this dread answer shall pure; Un - to its man - dates in meek - ness bow, Then thou shalt be se - known, “Weighed and found wanting” each guilty soul Stands there before His throne.

3. Weighed by the word which is given now, Search it and know thou art trod; Weighed and found wanting—'twill pierce thy heart At the last judg - ment - tred; Weighed and found wanting—will it be you? Weighed by the word of pure; Un - to its man - dates in meek - ness bow, Then thou shalt be se - known, “Weighed and found wanting” each guilty soul Stands there before His throne.

4. At the tribunal where Christ is judge, Where every deed is made known, “Weighed and found wanting”—each guilty soul Stands there before - His pure; Un - to its man - dates in meek - ness bow, Then thou shalt be se - known, “Weighed and found wanting” each guilty soul Stands there before His throne.

Refrain

Weighed and found wanting, Weighed by the word, weighed and found wanting, Weighed and found wanting, - Re ject - ed at Hea ven’s- door.

Weighed by the word, weighed and found wanting, - Re ject - ed at Hea ven’s- door.

Public Domain
Courtesy of the Cyber Hymnal™