

Calling for Me

William M. Robison, 1909

William M. Robison

♩ = 93

1. I have watched the sheep a - stray, As it wan - dered day by day, On the
2. I have watched the wo - man search For the gem of price - less worth, For the
3. I have watched the boy de - part, With his proud and anx - ious heart, As he
4. Now I see him as he goes, Clad in worn and tat - tered clothes, And formoun - tain heard its fee - ble cry; Oh, the Shep - herd's gen - tle call, How it piece of sil - ver she had lost; With her light and broom in hand, On she left his fa - ther's house to roam; Then I've seen him sitt - ing down, With the

- sak - en by the world so gay; With a brok - en, bleed - ing heart, "For my

Refrain
comes to one and all; Tell me why, then, will you die?
goes in ev - ery land, Search - ing for that which was lost. He's swine up - on the ground, Far a - way from that old home. He's Fa - ther's home I'll start," Now I hear him faint - ly say.

call - ing for me, He's call - ing for me, call-ing now for me, Call-ing now for me, He's call-ing now for me, He is call-ing now for me,

Call - ing for me,
Call-ing now for me, He is call-ing now for me, My Sav-ior's call-ing now for me, for me.