

Beyond the Mystic River

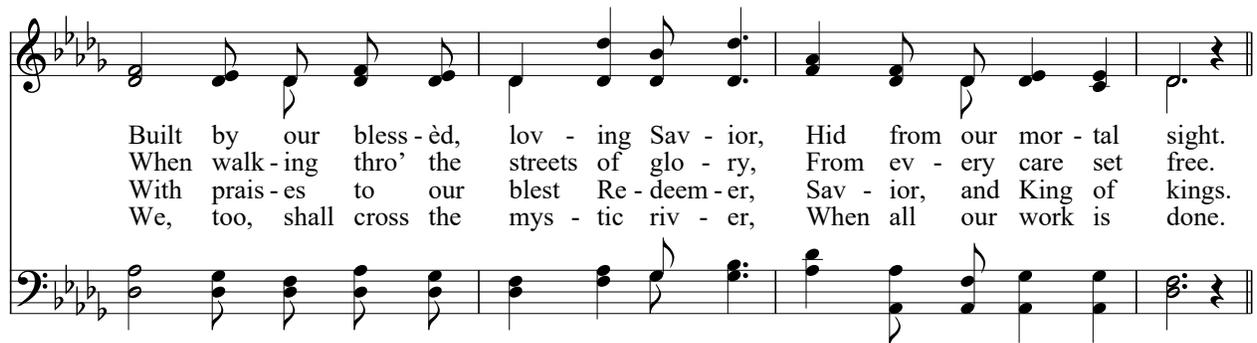

John W. Holt, 1903

From Stephen Collins Foster, 1851

$\text{♩} = 100$

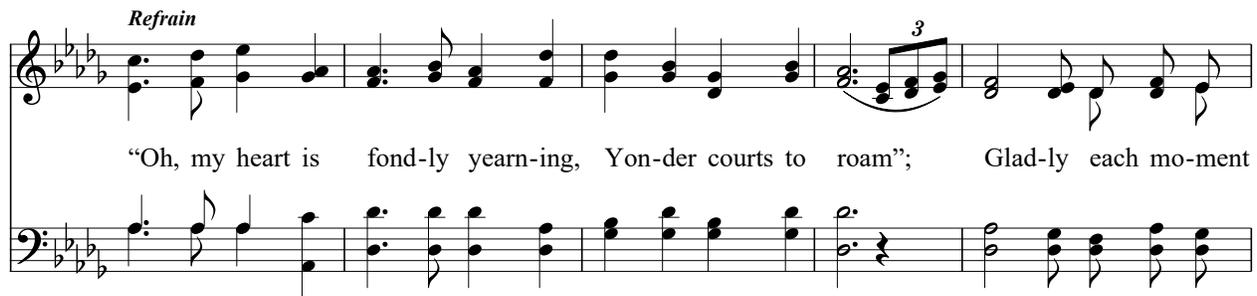

1. There is a home of won-drous beau-ty, Love-ly and bright;
2. This home is one of bliss im-mor-tal; Hap-py we'll be,
3. There in that land of song and beau-ty, All Heav-en rings
4. Je-sus is dai-ly call-ing loved ones Home one by one;

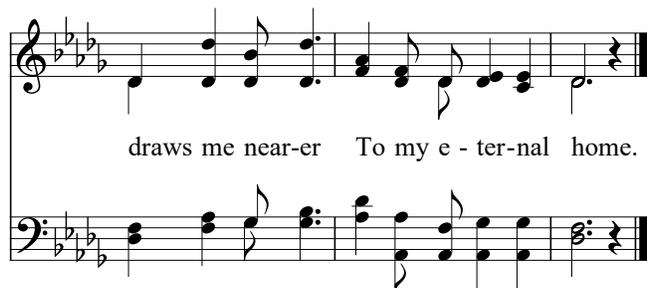

Built by our bless-ed, lov-ing Sav-ior, Hid from our mor-tal sight.
When walk-ing thro' the streets of glo-ry, From ev-ery care set free.
With prais-es to our blest Re-deem-er, Sav-ior, and King of kings.
We, too, shall cross the mys-tic riv-er, When all our work is done.

Refrain

"Oh, my heart is fond-ly yearn-ing, Yon-der courts to roam"; Glad-ly each mo-ment draws me near-er To my e-ter-nal home.