

Hark to the Crying!

Mrs. V. G. Ramsey, 1897

William A. May

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. Oh, hark to the cry - ing! The na - tions are dy - ing, The na - tions of earth in their
2. There's a tree of God's plant-ing, with leaf-age en - chant-ing, That cures all earth's mad-ness, and
3. The na - tions are cry - ing, yes, fall-ing and dy - ing! Oh, hast - en to tell of the fa - thom - less woe! Oh, hark to the groan - ing: All na - ture is moan - ing; Un - blind - ness, and care; And with power su - per - nal, with pi - ty e - ter - nal, He life - giv - ing tree Which grows by the ri - ver, that flow - eth for - ev - er, From

Refrain

- ceas - ing the an - guish, un - end - ing its flow.
of - fers this balm for her pain and des - pair. Oh, haste where they lan - guish in the throne of God's mer - cy, abun - dant and free.

blind-ness and an-guish, Soul - sick and soul-hun-gry, in mad-ness and strife; And tell the glad sto-ry, of par-don and glo-ry, Of heal-ing and beau-ty, and full-ness of life.