

Home Ties

James Gray Garth, 1920

H. A. Severinghaus

♩=110

1. Oh, the home ties are sweet, And the home ties are strong, And pre-cious in mem-ory No
2. We have wan - dered a - far, In the paths we have trod, From mo-ther's re-li - gion And the
3. Are you sa - tis - fied now With the plea - sures of sin? Does no thought of Je - sus Nor mat - ter how long Be the time since we part-ed From the old home back there, From the ways of her God, But the voice of that mo - ther, Of the fa - ther so dear, Now is Heav'n en - ter in? Oh, be true now to mo - ther, Turn to Je - sus her Lord; Take Him fa - ther and mo - ther And their kind lov - ing care. call - ing us heav'n - ward, If we on - ly will hear. Oh, the home ties are sweet, Yes, the as your own Sav - ior, And be - lieve in His Word.

home ties are strong, Let us keep them un - bro - ken, Be time short or long; Keep the home ties in Je-sus Who has gone to pre-prepare For the home up in Hea-ven, Let us all meet up there.

