

Sweetly the Birds Are Singing

Anzientia Igene Perry Chapman, 1885

Anonymous, 1894

♩=90

1. Sweet - ly the birds are sing - ing At East - er dawn; Sweet - ly the
 2. Birds! cease ye not your sing - ing At East - er dawn; Bells! be ye
 3. Buds! ye soon will be flow - ers, Cher - ry and white; Snow storms will
 4. Ea - st - er buds were grow - ing Ag - es a - go; East - er lilbells are ring - ing On East - er morn. And the words that they say On ev - er ring - ing On East - er morn. In the spring of the year, When change to show - ers, Dark - ness to light; With the wak - ening of spring, Oh!

 - ies were blow - ing By wa - ter's flow. All na - ture was glad, No crea-

East - er day Are "Christ the Lord is ris'n."
 East - er is here, Sing "Christ the Lord is ris'n."
 sweet - ly sing "Lo! Christ the Lord is ris'n."
 - ture was sad, For Christ the Lord was ris'n.