1. What will it mat-ter, by and by, Whe-ther my path be-low was bright,
2. What will it mat-ter, by and by, Whe-ther, un-helped, I toiled a-lone,
3. What will it mat-ter? Naught, if I On-ly am sure the way I'e trod,
4. What will it mat-ter? What the sigh, If, in my fear of slip or fall,

Whe-ther it wound thro' dark or light Un-der a gray or Dash-ing my foot a-gainst a stone, Miss-ing, per-haps, the Gloom-y or glad-dened, leads to God; Quest-ion-ing not of Close-ly I've clung to Christ thro' all, Mind-less how rough the gold-en sky, When I look back on it by and by?
