

Arise, Christian Soldier

Edith Fox Norton, 1906

Edith Fox Norton

♩ = 95

1. Oh, Chris-tian, a - rise, The con - flict fierce is rag - ing, And trust-ing in God, His
2. Oh, Chris-tian, a - rise, For souls a - round are dy - ing; The call comes to you— Oh, 3. Oh, Chris-tian, a - rise! And buck-le on the ar - mor, Go forth to the fray, For 4. Oh, Chris-tian, a - rise— For soon the morn-ing break-eth, That glad bless - ed morn, When help to - day im - plore; Be - hold, what a fight The send them light to - day; The glad Gos - pel news— To Christ Him - self is near; His grace will sus - tain, And all earth's sha - dows flee; So fight night and day 'Till

Refrain
en - e - my is rag - ing, Haste nor deem the con - flict o'er. those in bond - age ly - ing, Speed and help them while you may. A-naught of ill shall harm you; Je - sus leads— why should you fear?
Heav - en's dawn a - wak - eth, That shall bring the vic - to - ry.

- rise, oh a - rise, And hast-en, Chris-tian sol-dier, Go forth to the fight That waits for us to - day; No time for de - lay! For Sa - tan's power grows bold-er; Je - sus calls! We must o - bey.