

Christmas Morn

Katherine Sumner Burr, 1881

Merritt Jerome Munger

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. One and all, come let us sing On this birth-day of our king!
2. Je - sus came a lit - tle child, Ho - ly, harm - less, meek and mild;
3. Not up - on a roy - al throne, But in hu - man hearts a - lone;
4. Fold - ed warm - ly to His heart, Ne - ver from His love to part;
5. Then, when earth - ly scenes are past, One and all, may we at last

Refrain

How the bless-èd Christ was born On the hap - py Christ-mas morn.
Came to reign o'er all the earth Though so low - ly was His birth.
One and all, we'll make Him room, "Suf - fer such," said He, "to come." Glo-ry!
May each find a hap - py place In the king - dom of His grace. Glo-ry!
Find that Je - sus makes us room, To His glo - ry bids us come.

Glo-ry! Glo-ry in the high-est! Glo-ry! Glo-ry! Glo-ry! Glo-ry to our heav'n-ly king!
Glo-ry!