

Sinking Down

Tom A. Ferguson, 1912, alt.

Fred L. Beard

♩=98

1. There's a broth - er sink - ing down to - day (sink - ing down); Will you
2. Ma - ny souls are sink - ing down to - day (yes, to - day) That have
3. There are brok - en hearts so sad to - night (sad to - night), That are lend to him a help - ing hand (help - ing hand)? He is nev - er heard a Chris - tian pray (Chris - tian pray); Can you lost from Je - sus and the light (from the light); They are drift - ing, drift - ing far a - way (far a - way), And his speak to them a word of cheer (word of cheer), To bring drift - ing far a - way from shore (from the shore) Where they feet are on the sink - ing sand (sink - ing sand). Sink - ing down, sink - ing com - fort to the sin - ner's ear (sin - ner's ear)? yes, sink - ing down, will be lost for ev - er - more (ev - er - more).

Refrain

down, There's a bro-ther sink-ing down to - day; Sink-ing yes, sink-ing down, sink-ing down, down, sink - ing down, There's a bro - ther drift - ing far a - yes,

- way.
drift-ing far a - way.