

I Will Confess Him

Frank M. Dyer, 1905

James Ellsworth Delmarter

♩=95

1. I have heard the still small voice, Deal - ing with my in - most soul, Face to
2. He has sought me ma - ny years, Track - ing me in all my sin, Shed for
3. In my soul the fight is on— Sa - tan wants to keep me still; But to
4. I con - fess Thee now my Lord. Thou hast won me by Thy love. I will face with life's great choice: Shall the Sav - ior make me whole?

Refrain

me His blood and tears; Now He cries, "O let Me in." I will con - him, I cry, "Be - gone!" Je - sus, now pos - sess my will.
now pro - claim Thy word Till with Thee in Heav'n a - bove.

- fess Him, Je - sus my Sav - ior, Je - sus who died for sin - ners like me; Why should I doubt, And why should I wa - ver? I will con - fess Him, my Sav - ior is He.