

The Risen Jesus

Julia Harriette Johnston, 1896

Daniel Brink Towner

♩=80

1. Soft - ly the light of the beau - ti - ful morn - ing Fell on the gar - den, all
2. "Seek not the liv - ing at death's gloom - y por - tal, Je - sus is ris - en, oh, 3. Lo, in the midst of dis - ci - ples as - sem - bled, Show - ing the wounds in His smil - ing with bloom, When, in the dawn, with - out trump - et of warn - ing, be not a - fraid; He is not here," said the an - gel im - mor - tal;

hands and His feet, Ten - der - ly, ten - der - ly, while they all trem - bled,

An - gels des - cend - ed to o - pen the tomb. Wo - men of Gal - i - lee, fol - low - ers low - ly,
"Come, see the place where the Sav - ior was laid." Won - der - ful tid - ings! oh, mes - sage of glad - ness!
"Peace, peace be un - to you," hear Him re - peat. Je - sus, vic - tor - i - ous, God ev - er liv - ing,

Bring - ing their spic - es in to - ken of love, Seek - ing for Je - sus, the Mas - ter all ho - ly,
He who was dead liv - eth now in the skies. Tell to all hearts that are mourn - ing in sad - ness, Sav - ior of sin - ners, Thy prais - es we sing. Hear us, we pray, in our joy - ful thanks - giv - ing,

Refrain

Found the bright mes - sen - gers sent from a - bove.
Je - sus is ris - en; His child - ren shall rise. Hark! hark to the mes - sage, the Ris - en Re - deem - er and con - quer - ing King. Hark! hark to the heav - en - ly mes - sage, the glad East-er greet - ing, Je - sus is ris - en! Re - mem - ber His glad East-er greet-ing, glad East-er greet-ing, Je-sus the Sav-ior has ris-en! Re - mem-ber His word, re-word; Tell it a - broad, the good tid - ings re - peat - ing,

 - mem-ber His word. Tell it a-broad, tell it a-broad, Tell it a-broad, the good tid-ings re-peat-ing;

Till the whole world the sweet sto - ry has heard.
 Till the whole world, till the whole world, Till the whole world the sweet sto - ry has heard.