♩=130

1. Some one has slight-ed the Sav - ior to - day; Has it been you? Has it been me?
2. Some one has care - less - ly spok - en His name; Has it been you? Has it been me?
3. Some one has said, "Till to - mor - row I'll wait." Has it been you? Has it been me?
4. Some one will heed Him and make Him their choice; Will it be you? Will it be me?

Some one has heed - less - ly turned Him a - way; Has it been you or me?
Some one has brought to Him sor - row and shame. Has it been you or me?
Some one will find that to - mor - row's too late— Will it be you or me?
Some one in Him will for - ev - er re - joice— Will it be you or me?

Refrain

Still He is lov - ing - ly plead - ing to - day, Plead - ing with you, plead - ing with me; rit.

Tho' we so oft-en have turned Him a - way, He's plead-ing with you and me.
