

Still Undecided

Ernest George Wellesley Wesley, 1911

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=100

1. Still un-de-cid-ed, tho' close to life's gate, O why not now en-ter, al-
 2. Still un-de-cid-ed, why yet still de-lay? All things are re-a-dy, Love
 3. Still un-de-cid-ed! for thee He was slain, And why should His suf-fering for
 4. Still un-de-cid-ed! His voice sounds so clear: "Come all ye who wea-ry, who
 5. Still un-de-cid-ed! O wait not too long; O turn from the world and its

- rea-dy 'tis late; Je-sus is wait-ing, and call-ing for you;
 shows you the way; Night fast ap-proach-es, the day pass-es by, thee be in vain? Think of the scourg-ing, the spear and the cross!
 fal-ter and fear; Free-ly I par-don, and cleanse and re-ceive!"
 wild, rest-less throug; Je-sus now calls you—once more doth He call—

Refrain

Chains He will se-ver— all things He can do.
 Heed now His plead-ing: "Oh why will you die?"
 Life He would give you— all else is but loss. Why not de-cide to-night?
 Why not ac-cept Him, and on Him be-lieve?
 Come while He's wait-ing, and trust Him for all.

1.

Why not de-cide to-night? Je-sus is wait-ing and call-ing for thee, Call-ing for thee, call-ing for thee;

2.

Call-ing, is call-ing now for thee.