

Who Shall Be Able to Stand?

Edmund Simon Lorenz, 1891

Edmund Simon Lorenz

♩=100

1. When the aw - ful judg - ment day is break - ing, And the Judge shall sit up - on His
2. Years of sow - ing shall at length find har - vest, Pass - ing joys yield ev - er - last - ing
3. Oh, how bless - ed in that day the right - eous, Cleansed in Je - sus' blood from ev - ery throne, All the world will then ap - pear, Some in glad - ness, some in fear, Wait - ing pain; But the right - eous, sore - ly tried, Shall be ful - ly sa - tis - fied, They e - stain; For the Judge they need not fear, He is Sav - ior, friend so dear; Thro' His

Refrain

for the Lord to claim His own. Who shall be a - ble then to stand?
- ter - nal life shall now ob - tain. shall be a - ble then to stand?
love e - ter - nal life they gain.

Who shall be a - ble then to stand? At the Judg - e's blest com - mand, At His shall be a - ble then to stand?

right the right - eous stand, As they hear the wel - come words, "Well done!"

