1. The Bi - ble was giv - en That lost men may know The way in-to Hea - ven, And
2. It then points to Je - sus, Re - deem-er of all, The might - y who frees us From
3. It tells us of Hea-ven, The home of the soul, And crowns to be giv - en, While shun hell be - low. It does not de - ceive us; Is faith - ful to tell Of curse of the fall. It shows us our du - ty To God and to man In ag - es shall roll. Oh, Hea - ven - born trea - sure! We would have the more, In sin, death, and judg-ment, And tor - ments of hell. No word ev - er spo - ken By words of great beau-ty, And know them all can. No word ev-er spo-ken By God to His own, No full - ness of mea - sure And rich - ness of store.

God to His own Was ev - er yet bro - ken; 'Tis word ev-er spo-ken By God to His own Was ev-er yet bro-ken, Was ev-er yet bro-ken,; 'Tis firm as His throne.

firm, 'tis firm as His throne.
