

Let the Dear Savior Come In

William Clark Martin, 1900

James Milton Black

♩=95

1. The Sav - ior is stand - ing out - side your heart's door, Will you not let Him come
2. Oh, why so un - heed - ing to that lov - ing call? Will you not let Him come
3. Oh, why should you fear tho' the whole world should frown? Will you not let Him come
4. Take Je - sus for pi - lot o'er life's storm-y sea; Will you not let Him come in just now? He's seek - ing for en - trance, as oft - en be - fore, Will you not let Him come in just now? Re - ceive and con - fess Him your Lord be - fore all— Will you not let Him come in just now? The Sav - ior is wait - ing to give you a crown, Will you not let Him come in just now? And from all its per - ils be ev - er - more free— Will you not let Him come in?

Refrain

in? Let Him come in, let Him come in, Let the dear Sav - ior come in just now;
in?
in?

Let Him come in, let Him come in, Let the dear Sav - ior come in.
