

The Safest Way

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel, 1917

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

1. The ways of the world may tempt you With their glit - ter and glint of
2. The pal - ace of sin and plea - sure May ap - peal to your heart's de - 3. Her breast was your first warm pil - low, When she taught you to lisp His gold, And its prom - is - es may al - lure you As you watch its mir - age un -

- sire, For its mu - sic is strange - ly thrill - ing, Like the strains of a gold - en name; Don't dis - hon - or that bless - ed mem - ory With the teach - ing of mod - ern

- fold; False pro - phets, the thieves of Sa - tan, Like vam - pires en - tice their lyre. But, stop! Ere you cross its thresh - old, Look back to your child - hood's shame. Keep on in the dear old path - way! Let o - thers do as they prey; But stick to your mo - ther's God: Her way is the saf - est way.

day. And stick to your mo - ther's God: Her way is the saf - est way.
may, But stick to your mo - ther's God: Her way is the saf - est way.