

Star of Bethlehem

DeWitt Clinton Huntington, 1904

Joseph Lincoln Hall

♩=93

1. Once some wise men saw a star, As they
2. From ce - les - tial realms of light, Thro' the 3. 'Twas that star, whose splen - dors bright Filled the 4. Ev - er shine, O star - ry gem, O'er the jour - neyed from a - far O - ver de - sert waste and val - leys arch - es of the night, While the skies with songs of ser - aphs world with flam - ing light, As it shone through - out the star - ry town of Beth - le - hem, Till the earth shall wor - ship Christ the fair; Ma - ny wea - ry leagues went they Till they ring, Shone that glor - ious, star - ry gem O'er the dome, That pro - claimed to all the earth Tid - ings King! Till thy rays we all may see Shin - ing came where Je - sus lay, And they bent the knee of Ad - o - ra - tion town of Beth - le - hem, Where the trav - 'lers wor - shipped Christ, The new - born of Mes - si - ah's birth, As it told that Christ, The Prince of Peace, was o - ver land and sea, And each na - tion un - to Him Shall trib - ute

Refrain

there.
King.
come.
bring!

O the star, O the star, O the star of Beth-le-O the star, O the star, O the star, the

- hem! And it shines for us to-day, And will shine for us al-way! O the star of Beth-le-hem!

star, the bless-èd star Of Beth-le - hem!