1. In the arms of my dear Sav - ior I am
 2. Once I roamed in sin - ful dark - ness, O - ver
 3. Long in sin I sought for plea - sure, Some - thing
 4. I am dwell - ing in that king - dom, Where the rest - ing ev - ery day, And His smiles like sun - beams fall up - on my moun - tain, hill and plain, Seek - ing ev - ery - where for rest and find - ing that would sa - tis - fy, Some - thing that would quench the thirst - ing of my day is al - ways bright, And the spark - ling wa - ters of life's ri - ver face; I am stand - ing on His prom - ise, Where I none; Yes, my search for sa - tis - fac - tion While in soul; But I found that sin's do - min - ion, Naught I gleam, Where the gloom - y shades of dark - ness Are dis - shall for - ev - er stay, And my heart is o - ver - flow - ing with His grace. sin was all in vain, But I've found it in God's well be - lov - ed Son. need - ed could sup - ply, Then I turned to Je - sus, and He made me whole.

 - pelled by Hea - ven's light; And I'm ev - er drink - ing of that liv - ing stream.

Refrain

I am filled with grace and glo - ry, And in
I am filled with grace and glo-ry, I am filled with grace and glo-ry, Je-sus I a - bide; I will tell the won-drous sto-ry, Since my soul is sa-tis - fied.

hal-le-lu-jah!
