In the Shade of His Wings

Arr. from James Nicholson by Richard Adams 2020
Arranged from Bach by Lewis Edson (1748–1820)

Public Domain
Courtesy of the Cyber Hymnal™

Ref. — 100

1. In God I have found a retreat Where I can securely reside; No refuge, nor rest so complete, And here may I always abide.
   precious the comfort it brings, And sweet is my song as it rings; No danger or harm do I fear, Secure in the shade of His wings.

2. I dread not the terror by night; Nor arrow that flies in the day; His shadow has covered my head, My fears He has driven away.
   precious the comfort it brings, And sweet is my song as it rings; No danger or harm do I fear, Secure in the shade of His wings.

3. The pestilence stalks about, When darkness has settled abroad; Can nothing persuade me to doubt The presence and power of God. Oh, precious the comfort it brings, And sweet is my song as it rings; No danger or harm do I fear, Secure in the shade of His wings.

4. The wasting destruction at noon, No fearful foreboding can bring; With no fear for the terror of God, His presence is my solace profound.
   precious the comfort it brings, And sweet is my song as it rings; No danger or harm do I fear, Secure in the shade of His wings.

5. A thousand may fall at my side, Ten thousand may die in the land; A-thousand may fall at my side, Ten thousand may die in the land; A-thousand may fall at my side, Ten thousand may die in the land; A-