

Easter Greeting Song

Edith J. Sanford Tillotson, 1919

Isaac Hickman Meredith

♩=108

1. The bless-èd East-er comes a - gain, The ho - ly Sab - bath dawn-ing, With
2. We meet with-in the house of praise, With flow'rs for its a - dorn - ing, And
3. As all the won-der of His love With - in our hearts is dawn-ing, We'll

Refrain

an - thems sweet we come to greet, The Re-sur-rect-ion Morn - ing.
glad-ly sing, to Him, our king, This Re-sur-rect-ion Morn - ing. Hail the day!
live with care, that we may share His Re-sur-rect-ion Morn - ing.

hail the day! Sing with joy and mirth; Flow-ers fair, ev-ery-where, Glad-ness fills the earth. He is ris-en from the grave, He is ris'n, the world to save, Hail the day, hail the day, Hail the East-er day!