

Sowing and Reaping

Charles Millard Fillmore, 1898

Charles Millard Fillmore

♩ = 155

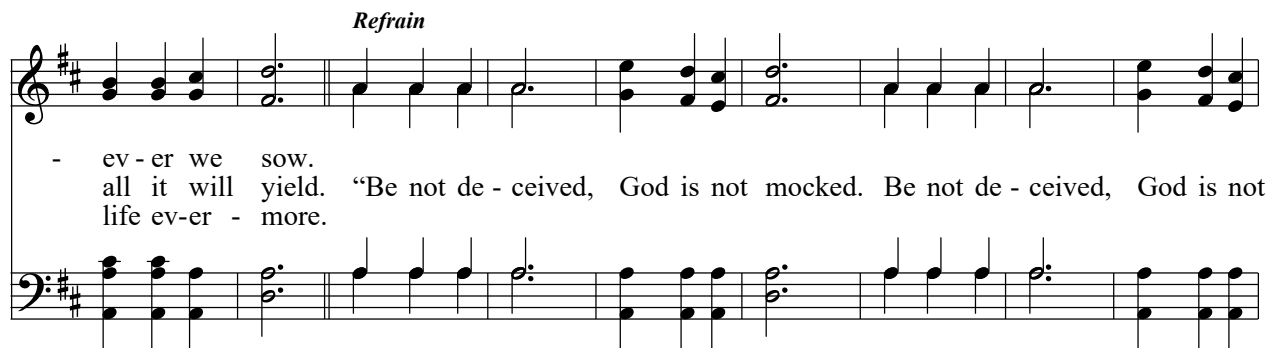

1. Sow-ing the seed by night and by day, Sow-ing the seed in ma - ny a way,
2. Sow-ing the seeds of flesh-ly de - lights, Sow-ing the seeds of base ap - pe - tites,
3. Sow-ing the seed of spir - it so pure, Sow-ing the seed of right-eous-ness sure;

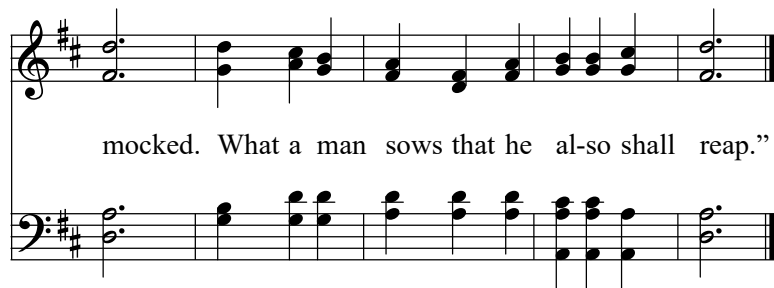

Reap-ing will come at some time, we know, Har - vest will spring from what-Reap-ing will come, be - hold the waste field; Ut - ter de - struct - ion is Reap-ing will come, be - hold the glad store, Bless-ed - ness now, then the

Refrain

- ev - er we sow.
all it will yield. "Be not de - ceived, God is not mocked. Be not de - ceived, God is not life ev - er - more.

mocked. What a man sows that he al-so shall reap."