

When the Veil Is Lifted

Charles Edward Pollock, 1904

Charles Edward Pollock

♩=105

1. 'Tis but a veil that hangs be - tween The un - seen world and this, And
2. To calm the ser - vant's need - less fears, God drew this veil a - side; When
3. De - part - ing saints such scenes be - hold, As in death's arms they sink; May hides from view the saint-ed forms, The world of per - fect bliss.

Refrain

all a - bout E - li - sha, lo! A might-y host he spied. When the veil is lift-ed, Hea - ven not be near us now? E'en near - er than we think?

In the by and by, Scenes of won - drous beau - ty Will greet the rap - tured eye;

Forms of cher - ished loved ones, Hosts of an - gels bright, When the veil is lift-ed, Will dawn up-on our sight.