

Sweetest Mother

Grace Stoddard Dennstedt, 1916, alt.

William Morgan Ramsey

♩=93

1. She's a lit - tle old fa - shioned, That sweet mo - ther of
 2. She's a lit - tle old fa - shioned, That sweet mo - ther of
 3. She's a lit - tle old fa - shioned, She stays close - ly at mine; There are ma - ny whose beau - ty Will my mo - ther's out - shine; She's a mine; Though ev - en her plain - ness Now my heart - strings en - twine; Oth - er home, So calm and con - tent - ed, Al - though oth - ers may roam; And in lit - tle old fa - shioned, As I plain - ly can see, But she is for hands may be fair - er, But none oth - er so dear, For they smoothed my ten - der young child - hood, 'Twas that home shel - tered me, And she who so

Refrain
 ev - er Sweetest mo - ther to me. pil - low, For ma - ny a year. She's a lit - tle old fa - shioned, But she's graced it, Dearest ev - er shall be.

sweet-er each day; I a - dore her plain fea-tures, And her thin locks of gray; There's a glo-ry a - round her, God a - bides it may be, And she is for ev-er Sweet-est moth-er to me.