

The Palace of Light

Victor Murray Hatfield, 1914

Susie Elva Hatfield

$\text{♩} = 75$

1. When I've whis - pered fare - well and for - got - ten my care, When I've
2. When the bat - tle is o - ver, the vic - to - ry won, When the
3. I shall sing a glad song when my eyes shall be - hold Th - e sung my last car - ol and breathed my last prayer, I'll be met by my Sav - ior a - tri - als are end - ed, the jour - ney is done, I shall look on a splen - dor more ci - ty of jas - per with por - tals of gold; Oh, the joy I shall know, when the

Refrain
- wait - ing me there, In my home in the Pal - ace of Light.
bright than the sun, In my home in the Pal - ace of Light. Man - sions of glo - ry, glor - ies un - fold, In my home in the Pal - ace of Light.

home o - ver there! Re - gion ce - les - tial, ra - diant and fair! No pain or sor - row, no gloom or night;

Beau - ti - ful home - land, Pal - ace of Light.