

Jesus Will Listen to Me

Sarah R. R. Ernest, 1900

William James Kirkpatrick

$\text{♩} = 95$

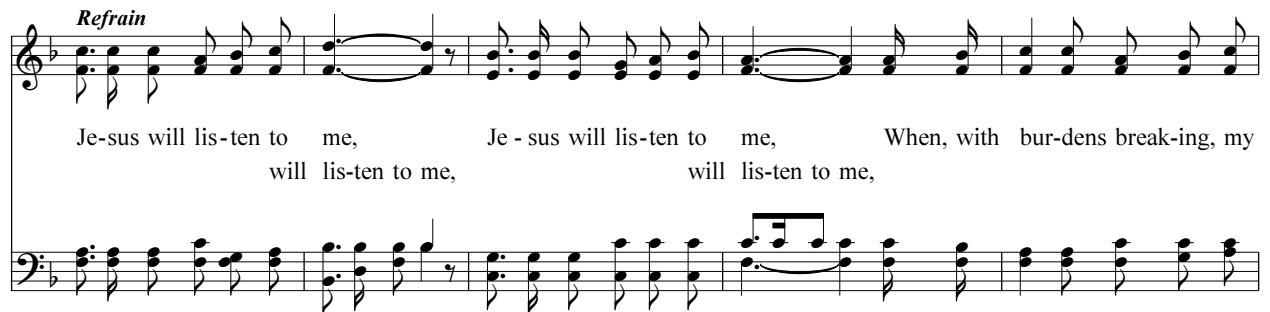

1. When my soul is bowed down in the dark - ness, With trials and temp - ta - tion and
2. When my friends and my trust - ed ones leave me, Then, shroud - ed in sor - row and
3. When my heart and my life have grown wea - ry, With fail - ure and trou - ble and
4. When I find that my life's day is end - ing, And sha - dows of ev - en - tide woe, When no mor - tal can com - fort or cheer me, To whom in that hour shall I go?

fear, All a - lone in the midst of earth's con - flict, I still have a list - en - ing ear.
loss, I may still ask for help and for com - fort From hands that were nailed to the cross.
fall, When I en - ter the dark, lone - ly val - ley, Ah, then up - on whom shall I call?

Refrain

Je - sus will lis - ten to me, Je - sus will lis - ten to me, When, with bur - dens break - ing, my will lis - ten to me, will lis - ten to me, heart is ach - ing, Then Je - sus will lis - ten to me.